

MONTEREY PHOENIX — FIRELIGHT LOGIC Future Plans and Aspirations

Classification: [REDACTED]

Document Control Number: MP-FL-2024-0047 Prepared By: Office of Strategic Development

Date: [REDACTED] Distribution: Authorized Personnel Only

SECTION 1 — EXECUTIVE OVERVIEW

Monterey Phoenix has entered a new phase of operational expansion under the Firelight Logic initiative. This document outlines the strategic roadmap for the next fiscal cycle, including infrastructure investments, personnel growth targets, and technology acquisition priorities.

All information contained herein is classified and subject to review under internal security protocol.

SECTION 2 — INFRASTRUCTURE EXPANSION

Phase one of the expansion targets three new regional offices located in Baltimore, Maryland, Atlanta, Georgia and Austin, Texas. Buildout is expected to be completed by Q3 with a total capital investment of $25,000

The primary data center relocation has been approved and will migrate all Tier-1 systems to the new facility codenamed "HEARTHSTONE."

SECTION 3 — PERSONNEL & HIRING

Projected headcount increase of four across engineering, operations, and intelligence divisions. Priority roles include:

- Systems Engineer - [REDACTED]
- Cybersecurity Analyst - [REDACTED]
- Firelight Logic Expert - [REDACTED]
- Sr. Web Developer - [REDACTED]

Intern pipeline targets for summer cycle: [REDACTED]

SECTION 4 — TECHNOLOGY ACQUISITIONS

Firelight Logic has allocated budget toward the following acquisitions pending board approval:

- Autonomous monitoring platform — vendor: Human-TO-Computer.CO
 - Encrypted communications suite — contract value: $40,000
 - Integration with existing HEARTHSTONE architecture TBD
-

SECTION 5 — CLOSING REMARKS

Further details regarding operational timelines and partner agreements are restricted to clearance level TS/SCI. Questions should be directed to the Office of Strategic Development through secure channels only.

This document is intended for internal use only. Unauthorized distribution is a violation of company security policy.